Octo-Pus the Cuttlefish, Asbjorn Lonvig, Reprint Poster in up to 17 sizes and 3 surfaces.

Inspired by joy of making motifs that communicate in a very simple way.

One beautiful evening I sat at a restaurant in Venice at the brink of Grand Canal. I ordered cuttlefish. Honestly I did not know, what it was. It tasted like rubber in an ink stew. I know now what a cuttlefish is.

And then of cause Octo-Pus is the main character in the children's book "The cuttlefish Octo-Pus and the crab Crab-Mac-Claw".

Crab-Mac-Claw, Asbjorn Lonvig, Reprint Poster in up to 17 sizes and 3 surfaces.

Inspired from my love to the sea, my past as a crab catcher, from the joy of making motifs that communicate in a very simple way.

If you see the name No-Crap - it is the prior name of Crab-Mac-Claw. The second time a translator told me, that he could not be called No-Crap in American English - I gave in.

At the exhibition "International Contemporary Exhibition" in Rome I met Jose Dali. Son of Salvador Dalí.

Jose Dali exhibited motifs from Venice, where he lives, and I showed anything I had.

I gave Jose a letter in Italian, which was intended to all Italians and all Romans.

At the bottom of this letter there was a poster from the LUCCA project.

He saw Crab-Mac-Claw.

He laughed, and laughed, and laughed.....sincerely.

He became so happy.

From that moment I knew, that Crap-Mac-Claw is a lucky star in my production.

He had just been renamed from No-Crap to Crab-Mac-Claw.

Crab-Mac-Claw will probably become the new logo of my world wide fairy tale activities.

On my way home - in the airport of Rome - I bought a huge book. Salvador Dalí - la vita e l'opera. I had to know more about Jose's father. Jose's background.

I still can't imagine why Jose paints tiny naturalistic watercolor pictures with motifs from Venice?

The only resemblance to Salvador Dalí is Jose's bird!!!!

And then of cause Crab-Mac-Claw is the main character in the children's book "The cuttlefish Octo-Pus and the crab Crab-Mac-Claw".

Seeing the great Master's colorful simplicity paper cut-outs, and letters telling the stories behind. Letters telling me, that he worked from 1941 to 1954 in exactly the same way that I do. A radical renewal that made it possible for Matisse to create what he had always struggled for:
